Sugar goes 20 pounds for a dollar at Cook's this week.

Tom Brown came up from Kiowa yesterday to appear in district court.

Farm to rent, 350 acres in cultivation, balance pasture. See H. C. Alexander for terms.

Capt. C. J. Skeen of Roger Mills county, Oklahoma, is in the city this week and visiting his daughter, Mrs. M. J. Lane, of Nippawalla.

The regular quarterly teachers' examination will be held at Medicine Lodge, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 25th and 26th.—J. E. Thomas, Co. Supt.

R. S. Wilkins and family of Miltonvale, Kansas, arrived in the city on Tuesday last week to visit with the family of A. B. Wilkins. The gentlemen are brothers.

Soda water, all flavors, and best ice cream daily at Lucien's parlors.

Mrs. Ozro Parsons of Medina, Mo., arrived last Wednesday to visit her aunt, Mrs. W. H. Thompson, and other relatives.

Don't wait until you are a candidate for a dime museum before you discard that straw hat. With hats as cheap as we have them it is almost a penitentiary offense to go without one.—Woodward & Murphy.

Miss Hale seems a triple Star in the realm of platform work. As a rare artist in Music, Reading and Whistling she has won all hearts, and will be thrice welcomed when she returns to our Florida Chautauqua.—Wallace Bruce.

G. F. Guthrie received a letter from his wife, who was called to Illinois by the critical illness of her mother recently, stating that her mother died on Friday. Six children survive her all of whom save one were at her bedside. Mesdames Guthrie and Gaitskill were the only children residing in this county or vicinity.

20,000 bushels of corn wanted. Write P. E. Hussey, Winfield, Kansas, and quote price.

Forsyth's mill is the right place to get your feed. Corn chop, kafir chop, bran, shorts and chicken feed always on hand.

F. R. Hayes has purchased the east half of the lot south of the south livery barn on Main street and has begun to build a carpenter shop 25x40.

Attorney Riley Cloud of Kiowa was the first out of town attorney to be present at the opening of the week's work in district court Monday morning.

Mrs. W. L. Parsons received a message Monday morning stating that Dick Henton's baby died at Capron, Ok., that morning and would be buried in the afternoon. On account of the word arriving only a short time before train time she was unable to go to attend the funeral.

William Palmer of Medicine Lodge is fixing to get rich no matter what the seasons bring forth. On his farm north of town he has just sown 120 acres of alfalfa and is constructing several cement hog houses. A combination of alfalfa pastures and good hogs with good houses to shelter them is a winning one or we don't know Kansas.—Mail and Breeze.

Walter Lonker returned from Coats Saturday and on Monday left for Ford where he is expecting to open a bank, of which he will be cashier. Mr. Lonker has had considerable experience in the banking business, and has for some time been connected with the Coldwater National of this city. Here's hoping that this new venture will prove a profitable one.—Coldwater Talisman.

Time is the best vindicator on earth. When Lewis Neill, the negro who was convicted of a crime in district court last week, voted at the election in November, 1906, the writer challenged him on the ground that he was under age and a non-resident. He took the oath and the election board admitted his vote, notwithstanding that there was some substantial evidence that he was not a qualified voter. At his trial last week he swore that he was 21 years old in February 1907 and became a citizen of Barber county about March 1st, 1907. If our republican friends would only be a little more careful about what they import for voting purposes, they could save the taxpayers a whole lot of needless expense and the shedding of human blood. This was the most costly vote that was ever secured in the history of Barber county.

V. S. Cook announces some bargains this week.

Mrs. Collins returned to Medicine Lodge Saturday. She was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. John McCorkle, while in the city.—Harper Advocate.

Kiowa has always honed for a railroad connection with the county seat of Barber county and now has it; but the service is so irregular and at such unsatisfactory hours they are talking of putting on a daily hack line between the two towns.—Anthony Republican.

J. C. Lovejoy returned last Friday from his summer and fall visit in his native state, New Hampshire. He says it was getting mighty frosty there when he left, in fact things were beginning to freeze. The climatic conditions, the year around, can't be excelled in this part of the world.

Among the audience was Henry Clay Barnabee, who came to enjoy himself with the other young people with the special intention of hearing Mr. Condit sing "The Cork Leg." Five thousand times Mr. Barnabee has sung that song in public. The great comedian listened and praised Mr. Condit, commending his choice of selections and his genuinely humorous rendering of them. The comical illustrative action to "The Cork Leg" was evolved by Mr. Barnabee himself.—The San Francisco Call.

You will miss a genuine treat if you fail to hear Mr. Condit at the opera house tonight.

Wrong again! Prof. Stout and the Kiowa Journal now claim that the reason the Professor did not make application for a county high school levy for the Kiowa school between the meeting of the board of levy in August and the regular commissioners' meeting in October, was that the board was not in session during the interim. And this from the self-same man who scornfully shouts "ignorance" at the folks here! Is the learned Prof. familiar with that section of the law which says that if the commissioners fail to make the levy, then it shall be the duty of the county superintendent to do so upon a proper showing? Why didn't this sage make his showing before the tax rolls were written up? He knew of the county board's action in August. His actions prove that he did not only not intend to ask for a county levy until recently, but he has demonstrated that he knew no more about the Barnes act than a Texas male bovine knows about the Sabbath day. And this is the bunch of egotism that struts around and points out who is a chump and who is "ignorant." O temporal O mores!

Good Whisky

But not at our place. We sell good Furniture, Carpets, Matting, Linoleums, Queensware, Glassware, Lamps, Stoves and Tinware.

M. C. GAZIN,
L. T. Williams' old stand.

Mrs. Daniel Morris departed Saturday for her home in California. Her brother, Morris McClain, accompanied her and will visit there for some time.

It is said that John Moffatt, the Hazelton booze man, did not permit the grass to grow under his feet after his release in district court last week, but made a B line for other climes in anticipation of a second warrant. The officers did not seem to be in a great hurry about re-arresting him and probably are very well satisfied if the man will remain away.

E. G. Williams and wife departed on Saturday morning to visit in Kansas City, Mo., and Council Grove, Kansas. They will be home Saturday or Monday.

There is a possibility that there will be one or two prosecutions on a charge of perjury as a result of the Neill case tried in district court last week. Two witnesses were particularly rank in their testimony.

Neal Grigsby came over from Stevens county last week in answer to a subpoena to attend court as a witness in several cases involving land titles. In bygone days Neal figured prominently in Barber county politics but having a head of his own he did not always subscribe to the dictations of the coterie and as a result was almost read out of the republican party. Since going west he has eschewed politics and, by reason of investments in real estate and stock raising, has accumulated a nice little fortune. In common with his numerous Barber county friends, we are glad to hear of his success.
